São Paulo, Brazil

The housing complex “Júlio Prestes” was a partnership between the private sector, the State Secretary of Housing and São Paulo City Hall. The complex consists of eight residential towers, with 1.130 units for social interests and 72 unities for the market. The complex has easy access to the train station – CPTM “Companhia Paulista de Trens Metropolitanos”, as well as to trade centers.

You can find more information about the project here.
