

“Inclusiveness and Affordable Housing”

Thursday, 19 September 2019, 09:00 – 10:30

Biennale Foundation, São Paulo, Brazil

Thematic Session 2 (GPSC): Inclusiveness and Affordable Housing

Venue: Biennale Foundation, Plenary C

9:00 to 10:30

More than 100,000 housing units need to be built daily to meet current demand. One billion people live in slums in low- and middle-income countries, and the formal housing sector has been unable to produce new housing at the scale, pace or price needed to respond to prevailing demand. This session will discuss the World Bank’s approach to supporting countries in addressing the challenges of the housing sector and will delve into specific programs being pursued by policy makers and practitioners.

	1. Opening Mr. Horacio Terraza, Lead Urban Specialist, World Bank
	2. Presentation Mr. Robert Beugré Mambé, Governor of Abidjan
	3. Affordable housing and social inclusion in Belo Horizonte Ms. Maria Fernandes Caldas, Municipal Secretary of urban Policy of Belo Horizonte
	4. Inclusión y asequibilidad en el mercado de la Vivienda Mr. Ivan Kerr, Secretary of Housing of Argentina
	5. Inclusão social e acesso a moradia João Siqueira de Farias, Municipal Secretary of Habitação, Sap Paulo City Hall
	6. Q&A and Closing remarks
